

Social sciences intervention during Health Emergency' Response. A focus on COVID-19 Virtual training session 12/05/2020

Training agenda

Time Frame	Session	Facilitator
5mn	Introduction	EPR
10mn	Topic 1. Anthropology and public health: identifying the uncommon for global health	Pr Joseph Okeibunor
10mn	Topic 2. Social science intervention framework during public health emergencies (paradigms, context, methods, etc.)	Dr Julienne Anoko
40	Topic 3. Experiences of social science interactions with responses' pillars: Surveillance, Logistics, Risk Communication & Community Engagement and IPC/Safe and Dignified Burial	Pr Cheikh Niang Dr Julienne Anoko M. Boiro Hamadou Dr Julienne Anoko
30mn	Topic 4. Some results of social sciences' intervention in the context of COVID-19 (Senegal, Cameroon and Guinea-Bissau)	Pr Cheikh Niang Dr Parfait Akana M. Boiro Hamadou
20mn	Discussion, Wrap-up and ways forward	Pr Joseph Okeibunor/Dr Julienne

Training Objectives

General: To disclose the contribution of social sciences during public health emergencies' response

Specifics

- To present social science intervention framework during public health emergencies (paradigms, context, methods, etc.)
- To share experiences of social science interactions with the pillars during outbreak' response (surveillance, conflicts resolution, logistics, IPC/Safe and dignified burial, Risk Communication & community engagement, etc.)
- To share some results of social sciences' intervention in the context of COVID-19 (Senegal, Cameroon and Guinea-Bissau)

Training expected results

- The social sciences intervention framework during public health emergencies is known
- The experiences of social science interactions with responses' pillars are shared
- Social science intervention results under COVID-19 are shared.

THANK YOU